

2017 Colorado Science Conference
Presentation Proposal Rating Rubric

Presentation Title: _____

Evaluation Criteria	Excellent 3	Fair 2	Poor 1	Score
Title	Clear, gains the reader's attention, clearly describes the session	Some indication of the session's content	Little information about the session's content
Abstract / Proposal (This category will be the most important and will carry the most weight for any decisions made by the selection committee)	Well-written and provides explicit statement of participant outcomes, objectives and how it will be achieved	Adequately written and participant outcomes and / or objectives need detail	Unclear and fails to include participant outcomes and / or objectives
Presentation Style	Plan will actively involve attendees during the presentation and provides immediate classroom application.	Presentation is primarily presenter oriented, but does provide for classroom application.	Little to no audience involvement is provided and/or little application to the classroom.
Importance and Appropriateness of topic	Immediately relevant and important to the field and has clear implications and application to the classroom.	Related to the field and provides for some classroom application.	Irrelevant and unimportant to the field and/or little classroom application.
Type of Presentation: Commercial or Non-Commercial	Purpose of the presentation is NOT to sell products.		Purpose of the presentation is to sell products.

Score Total: _____